- Get a paper and a script book

15 mins reading time

- Start reading at 4pm
- No writing allowed in this time
- Calmly--- read through
- Get an idea of what the whole paper asks
- Start writing at 4-15pm

The first 15 mins

- Me &/or Shanika there for reading time: ask any questions
- Leave my mobile no to ring me if there is any query
- From 4:15pm for 2 hours – so your time over at 6:15pm

Writing your exam

- 2 hours 1 min per 1 mark
- Questions in any order, top down
- Number and write from top to bottom
- Leave space → continue and come back

Writing your exam

- We don't mind any question order
- Write in any colour pen (except red)
- Please neat handwriting
- May use parts on LH side for 'rough work'/'doodling'
- Sometimes cross through

Writing your exam

- Do not recommend leaving earlier
- Rather go through and make sure of:
 - your answers
 - that you answered all the questions
 - that you understood the question

Writing the exam paper

- Not allowed to take the exam paper with
- (just normal practice)
- Ask for more scripts if one is not sufficient
- Make sure your SN on each

What happens next

Marking the exam

- We collect the books (on the same day)
- We start to mark on Thursday probably until Saturday to completed
- Each mark same sections

Processing of Marks

- We then capture all the sections' marks
- We are lenient (on your side...)
 - We look at questions that are weakly answered or
 - Misinterpreted
 - Make decisions on these...

Sample exam

- Very similar look and feel for
 - Layout
 - Types of questions
 - Breadth of marks
 - Coverage
 - How things are asked

Processing of Marks

- All exam marks captured (and updated)
- All assessment marks also captured
- Added (50% hurdle for exam and for the assessment items)

Similarities

- Length
- Total marks [100 marks]
- 50% of your final mark, has to pass
- 1 mark = 1 minute
- No of marks = time spent on a

LMS

- Please check that all your marks are correct in the LMS
- Notify us if there is something that needs attention
- Then... wait for the results

A final word...

- Thank you to ALL
- Great to get to know you
- Thanks for coming to CLASS!
- Thanks for those who indicated they would participate in our Focus Groups
